For Your Prayers;

As Advent begins, pray that we may use this holy season as a time for serious preparation, penitence and prayer, despite the bustle and glitter of the commercial Christmas as it gathers momentum around us.

Church: Pray for the Episcopal Church of South Sudan; pray this week that all who are vulnerable can be assured of protection and safe care when attending our churches an sake part in worship and other activities; pray for the safeguarding officers in the Diocese and this benefice asking that we may respond appropriately and with care and sensitivity to any situation of hrt or need that may arise

World: : pray for all in our world whose lives and livelihoods have been impacted by natural disasters, severe weather and changes caused by global warming, and for those caught in situations where the impact of disasters of this sort is worsened by political unrest, ethnic or cultural divisions, conflict or corruption,

People in a week marking World Aids Day and the Day for the Abolition of Slavery pray for the continuing campaign to combat HIV and for effective Aids education. Also pray for the many people in our world who still live in conditions of virtual slavery, and for their freedom from such oppression.

Continue to pray for all who are unwell, for Neil Unitt, Mike Swinnerton, Mike Tunnicliff, Margaret Artus , Eric Powell and Phil and Patsy Rudge; pray for all families mourning the loss of loved ones at this time. May those grieving, find new strength and hope in the living Christ.

Lighten our darkness we beseech thee,
O Lord
