For Your Prayers;

As the days begin to open out give thanks for the first signs of Spring and the reminders of new life; on Valentine's Day and throughout this week pray for those preparing for marriage in our churches and for all that we do to guide and support them

Church: the Anglican Church of Australia; Pray for all who feel the call to ministry and for the recognition and nurturing of vocations

World: we continue pray for peace; for the suffering peoples of Ukraine and Russia, Iraq, Yemen, Israel and Gaza; for all peacemakers and international leaders that they may use their skills to broker peaceful outcomes to conflicts across the world; pray too for those mourning the loss of loved ones in the Washington air crash and for the US emergency services, volunteers and crash investigators as they complete their harrowing work

People: as APCM time approaches, pray for all parishes in the Diocese struggling to find people to fill the posts of CW, secretary and treasurer asking for guidance on how to tackle this; pray for all church and community choirs, giving thanks for all who give their time and talents to enable choral music to be performed and valued our churches; Monday is World Epilepsy Day, pray for greater awareness of this illness asking that the needs of all who live with it are met so that they can live life to the fullest.

Continue to pray for all who are unwell, for Neil Unitt, Mike Swinnerton, Mike Tunnicliff, Margaret Artus, Eric Powell Angela Gething-Lewis and Bill and Willie Stevens; pray for all mourning the loss of loved ones at this time. May those grieving, find new strength and hope in the living Christ.
Lighten our darkness, Lord, we pray.
