Word from RevLaura

The readings I will use Sunday 29th June are Gal 5:1, 13-25 and Luke 9: 51-end . What is God saying to you through these scriptures this week.

It has been a warm week; the sun has been beating down on the plants and I keep being reminded to pop out and water them. This has made me think about how important it is in the good times to keep our faith strong. When everything looks sunny it can be easy to take things for granted and maybe get caught up in all the wonderful things around us. However, we must always remember to water our faith, to keep reading our Bible, praying and including Jesus in the good times as well as the bad times. God is in it all, and if we water our faith then we grow. The joy of knowing Jesus in your life needs to be nurtured because then as life gives you sun and rain, in both you will know you are safe in the hands of the living God.
