Word from RevLaura

The readings for 20th July are Col 1:15-28 and Luke 10: 28-end and . What is God saying to you through these scriptures this week.

We had the great pleasure of welcoming Christine as our curate last week. I know that you will be a great blessing to her as she will be to you. Christine has responded to the call on her life to serve Jesus in a particular way. We are all called to be part of the Kingdom work for Jesus, and this may be in many ways. If you have a sense that you would like to test whether you are called to be involved in services, pastoral or outreach (sharing Jesus with others) in a more organised and recognised way please do talk to me about this. There are several routes and training opportunities. Most of these are not a heavy burden but will just equip you to do things well. Some of these can be done here in the Benefice by us, please do pray and think if this is you. All of us get to be part of the work here and many of you serve tirelessly and it is joy to be here as you have such a heart to be the Church not just do Church. Thank you for all you do. Amen
