

Word from RevLaura

The readings for 10th August are Gal: 4:4-7 and Luke 1:46-55. What is God saying to you through these scriptures this week.

Since I arrived back in Feb I have managed to get into 'planting planters'. I am not a gardener as anyone who knows me knows. So, this is a new experience for me. However, it has been quite exciting to watch as the flowers I have planted have grown and flowered. There is satisfaction in knowing you have a part in their life. At this time of the year, it seems quite a few of them have now finished. As I pray here looking out across the benefice it strikes me that I am constantly reminded that we must sow seeds, and nurture that which God is doing in our communities. It strikes me that this also means allowing things to die for them to grow again. I wonder what if anything we need to rethink. There is a cycle to everything. It is important that we pray together for the future of this benefice so that we know what God is giving life to and we know which season we are in.
