

Word from RevLaura

Shortly we will enter the time of Lent, a time to journey with Jesus to the cross, a time to think about those things in your life that maybe need to be readdressed. A time of laying down the stuff that stops you living the life you have been called to live. You may be thinking of giving up something for Lent or fasting something. This can be giving up television, or a meal, or drinking alcohol, or chocolate, something that matters to you. It is important to remember it is not giving up for the sake of giving up, it is to then take this time to pray or read the Bible, to feed your soul. It maybe that you find giving something up too much but then take up maybe a regular time to pray, or read your Bible, develop a discipline that will feed you and your faith. It could be that you decide to go to the weekly reflections and give this time to really think about your journey with Jesus, The church seasons are a wonderful way to reflect on your walk with Jesus and deepen your faith, take advantage of them. Amen
