

A Lent Prayer from Compassion: Heavenly Father, thank you that in every circumstance you draw me near. When I pray for things to change, I remember that you long for righteousness and justice. When I feel heartbroken about those living in fear and conflict, I remember that you are the Prince of Peace. When I'm overwhelmed with grief, I remember how Jesus wept when his friend Lazarus died. When I'm afraid, I remember that you broke the chains of death. May I live every day with the true hope that is found in Christ. Amen
